Saturday, October 26 • 1:15pm Hansel and Gretel Children's Theatre Play

FREE EVENT! Following a one day children's theatre workshop a group of area students will perform Hansel and Gretel, a classical Brothers Grimm fairy tale. Two siblings, Hansel and Gretel run away from home, and find themselves alone in a dark forest. Very soon they discover a Gingerbread House and meet its respective owner, the wicked Witch. Hansel and Gretel interact with the children in the audience, and ask them to help them trick the wicked Witch. At the end Gretel outsmarts her, using the Witch's own spell, and frees herself and Hansel from the magical bonds!

This activity is sponsored in part by the New Ulm Actors Community Theatre and the Martin County Youth Foundation.

Art Education & Theatre Opportunity

Children's Theatre Workshop -- October 26 · 9am – 12:15pm
(public performance to follow at 1:15)

Kindergarten - 6th Grade

Cost: $10 (Lunch will be provided)

Introduce your child to the world of theatre and playmaking. During this one day morning workshop children will create a new version of the traditional Grimm's story, "Hansel & Gretel," and act out the parts. The new story adds a narrator, Mr. Gingermann, a cookie that escaped from the evil witches' Gingerbread House deep in the Black Forest. No memorization, costumes, or experience is necessary. Fun is the goal...and improvisation!

The interactive live audience performances of "Hansel & Gretel" will be held at 1:15 pm and is open to the public free of charge. Doors open at 1:00 pm.

The workshop and performance will be led by Paul Warshauer, and sponsored in part by the New Ulm Actors Community Theatre, and the Martin County Youth Foundation.
