Monday, April 14 at 7pm · “The Gaelic Harp & Its Three Musics” at Red Rock featuring Ann & Charlie Heymann.

This will be the fourth in a series of five free public seminar-performances featuring a thousand years of the harp tradition of Ireland and Scotland.

The Gaelic harp is depicted on every Irish coin and passport and is perhaps best known outside of Ireland on every bottle from Ireland’s Guinness brewery. However its voice was lost publicly for over two hundred years until Ann Heymann became involved.

A native Minnesotan, Heymann has played a crucial role in bringing the Gaelic harp's voice to life; indeed the Scotland’s Harp Society Comunn na Clarsaich says "Ann Heymann is the pioneer who brought the Gaelic harp back to a living tradition."

The April focus will be on the cycles of life and the Gaelic harp's three magical musics in context with the horsehair and gut-strung harps of medieval Wales and Scotland. Don't miss this opportunity to hear and learn about the famous instrument from its foremost representative and you are invited to a reception with Ann and Charlie following this Arts Learning Seminar-Performance. Admission is free.

Friday, April 25th and Sat., April 26th – 3rd Annual dinner theater and silent auction fundraiser

Murder at the Red Rock Speakeasy,
an original 1929 Murder Mystery

Community members will star in the 3rd Annual Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre. Proceeds from a silent auction will benefit Red Rock Center upcoming visual and performing arts season.

This original murder mystery written and directed by Paul Warshauer will take you back to 1929 – the prohibition era.
