Artist's Statement: I paint out of awe at the exquisite, playful effects of light that reveal natural patterns and harmonies. I paint out of joy at participating in the colors, depth and rhythms around me, that dance through me as I channel them into my art. I believe that good art is no less than a slice of life created and shared with heartfelt, thoughtful attention. Somewhere in the liveliness of nature, I seek a still depth....and in stillness, harmonies of spirit.

Laura have been creating and studying art for 30 years, at MCAD, the University of Minnesota, and the MN River School of Fine Art. She has a Masters in Art Education from the Univ. of Minnesota, plus masters' work in Spirituality & Art at United Theological Seminary. She currently teaches painting at Edina Art Center and White Bear Center for the Arts. Although specializing in plein air chalk pastel and oil landscapes, she also create portraits, figures, still lifes, murals, and is accepting commissions.
