Artist of the Month – June Newburg of New Ulm

Meet & Greet Artist Reception

Saturday, March 7th · 1:30-3pm

June has been painting for over 40 years, mainly with oil in a realistic style. About two and a half years ago she lost part of her eye sight so changed to a looser style but is gradually working her way back to more detailed paintings. One of her latest projects has been still-life portraits with objects depicting characteristics about a specific person.

June is a member of Glacial Ridge Artists for over 40 years - past president, lifetime member. Member of Artists of Minnesota for over 40 years - past president and board of directors, lifetime member: BA degree from Huron College, Huron, SD in elementary education; drawing classes at South Dakota State University, Brookings, SD.

Come and meet June and enjoy socialization and refreshments during the Meet and Greet Artist, or stop by and view the show anytime during open gallery hours: Tues. and Thurs. 10am-6pm, or Mon., Wed., & Fri. 10am-3pm.

Saturday, March 14 · 3pm Warren Nelson & Rowan Nelson-Ferris

For one afternoon only Warren returns to Fairmont where his professional career in show business began 45 years ago. He will be accompanied by his son Rowan who is an incredible banjo and guitar player as well as a songwriter. Nelson has written over 500 songs and will be performing several from A Martin County Hornpipe, the musical story of Fairmont he wrote and produced in 1976. Don't miss this afternoon of original music and comedy!
