A Meet & Greet Artist Reception will be held on Sat., Aug. 22 · 6:30-8pm
Open to the public. Refreshments will be provided.

Wooden Spoon Editions is a small, home based operation in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Instead of using a traditional press or baron, I use a wooden spoon to burnish the paper and create each print by hand making them all unique. Each print draws on inspiration from a past experience. My aim is create a subtle reminder of life's happy moments and to help keep those memories ever present. I love the simple clean lines of Scandinavian design and incorporate a similar aesthetic within each of my prints - elegance through simplicity.

When I'm not making new prints I'm usually enjoying the outdoors by bike, ski, boat, or foot, curled up reading a book, or relaxing with my husband and our dog Nisse.

Tuesday, August 14th · Noon Lunch with the Arts

After several years of fighting arthritis in her thumb Johanna Hocker returns to the stage with her guitar and gospel music. Last winter, Johanna saw an announcement about a gospel "jam" in Buffalo Center, IA so she got her guitar out, and went. It was a painful night, as any guitar player can attest to, but what fun to go back to the wonderful music she had left behind. Now, her calluses are back, new strings on her guitars and she's ready to share her music once again.

Bring a sack lunch if desired. Coffee and refreshments will be served. Open to the public free of charge.

Tuesday, August 25th, from 2:00 to 4:00, a Haitian Jewelry Sale

Presented by Carol Nasby from the Peace Group of Fairmont, with the help of Friends from Grace Lutheran Church. The Apparent Project Artisans guild is all about finding the worth and dignity of things that might otherwise be discarded and making that value apparent to others. They strive to draw attention to the value of people who might otherwise be forgotten.

They are referred to as "apPARENT" project because they provide creative employment for families that are at risk of relinquishing their children to orphanages or to the streets. They currently employ 300 artisans and sell over a million dollars of product! They are dedicated to making a difference in the lives of parents of children at risk while showcasing their skill, dignity, and creative genius to the watching world.

Refreshments will be served and a free will donation will be taken. All proceeds will go directly to the Haitian artists so they may feed and house their families
