Artist of the Month

John Wells

On display September 5th – 29th

ARTIST MEET & GREET ~ SEPT., 5TH AT 5PM

Through six years of training in drawing, painting, sculpture, and art history and a B.S. Degree in Design, creativity has always been the foundation of John's life. His work is process based and experimental in nature. Visually, the work focuses on composition, lines, layers,

As the artwork progresses he relies less on small tools and more on larger tools that allow the simultaneous use of two hands, such as plastering trowels, and tools I make to guide my lines and the application of paints. He's gradually exploring new materials for line and form making, including materials such as cloth, paper, string, wire, plaster and wood.

He's interested in things that are unchanging, permanent and universal, and equally interested in things that are random, intuitive, unplanned, and disordered, even chaotic. The visual resolutions of these conflicts result in the language of his art. Ultimately, finding beauty in the simple structure within our lives and finding joy in the unexpected possibilities that fate provides.

New Season Opener

TOMMY RYMAN

Standup Comedian

Fri., September 8th - 7pm

Stand-up comedian Tommy Ryman grew up with a new-age, folk singing mother and a traditional, Lutheran insurance agent father. This XY equation evidently equals: acclaimed comedian. Ryman's act can be described as absurdist and clever, masked behind a very likable and innocent demeanor, often thought of as disturbingly adorable.

Ryman has earned the title of Semifinalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing. Ryman and has been sought out by some of the nation's top comedians opening for the likes of Louie Anderson, Maria Bamford, and Nick Swardson. He was invited to perform at the prestigious Great American Comedy Festival at the Johnny Carson Theater, and was featured as one of the "Twin Cities' Funniest People" by Metro Magazine.
