Paintings & Photography by MATTHEW PETROWIAK
on display through Feb. 26

A MEET & GREET RECEPTION WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH, 3PM-5PM

Matthew Petrowiak of Fairmont grew up on his grandmother Dorothy's farm. His mother Cheryl, who was also an artist, encouraged him to pursue his passion for art. He has enjoyed art for as long as he can remember but it really took off during college. Later on he added photography to his list of artistic talents. Matthew states "Creating art gives me a sense of zen and allows me to capture feelings and emotions that goes far beyond the time the painting was created". Although he enjoys exploring a variety of medias and subjects his love for the great outdoors comes through in his nature and landscape drawings, paintings and photography.

He has a personal connection with much of the work he does. For example, as a child he loved Saturday Night Live and the NBC Studios was one of the first buildings he just had to see while visiting New York. He has spent over 10 year adding details and perfecting the painting of that very building he observed as a child. He drew Obama months before the election because he thought Obama would soon make history. His work is filled with many wonderful memories and looks forward to sharing it with the community and letting his inspiration shine.

Saturday, February 2nd

6th Annual Children's Theatre Workshop

Introduce your child to the world of theatre and playmaking. During this one day morning workshop, children will create their very own version of "Peter Pan" and act out the parts. The workshop will be led by Paul Warshauer and funded in art by the Martin County Youth Foundation.

Friends and family are invited to come and see their Very Own Version of Peter Pan at 1:30.

BE MORE SPONTANEOUS

Spontaneity – An Intro to Improv

Saturday, March 2 · 1-4pm

All skill levels welcome. Ages 16 and up

It's time to get out of your head and start pulling new ideas from thin air through the power of being in the moment and listening. Experience a fun introduction to the joys and thrills of improvised theatre. Students will learn improv concepts, vocabulary, and new skills through games and exercises that can help you in day to day living. This class is guaranteed to help you get those creative juices flowing and lead you down the path of spontaneous creation. The workshop is led by Paul Warshauer, author/director and has produced, directed, written, created, and starred in over 500 productions from coast to coast. Mr. Warshauer is a graduate of Northwestern University, and California State University, Northridge, CA with a degree in theater, directing and film. Please bring a notebook and pen.
