Visual Arts Club

Introductory Meeting
Tuesday, February 18th · 6:30pm

Are you a hobby artist, have always wanted to do art, but just couldn't get started? Do you enjoy dabbling or maybe you are a seasoned artist? Regardless where your creativity lies come and explore some possibilities for creating a social environment for artists to network, build rapport, share ideas, and explore the world of art in a fun, social environment.

This introductory meeting led by Nancy Kazter will focus on what's in store for a monthly art club to be held at the Red Rock Center. Come and enjoy light refreshments and conversation with other creative people and visit about this exciting new club.
